The Greeks and Greek Love

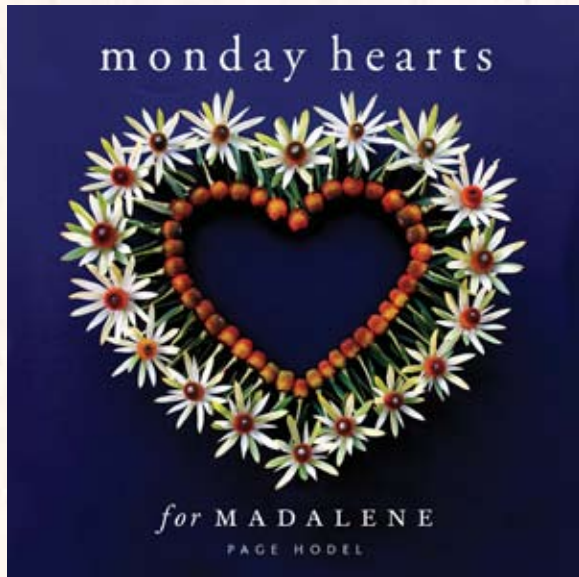

A Bold New Exploration of the Ancient World

For nearly two thousand years, historians have treated the subject of homosexuality in ancient Greece with apology, embarrassment, or outright denial. Now classics scholar James Davidson offers a brilliant, unblushing exploration of the passion that permeated Greek civilization. Using homosexuality as a lens, Davidson sheds new light on every aspect of Greek culture, from politics and religion to art and war. With stunning erudition and irresistible wit—and without moral judgment—Davidson has written the first major examination of homosexuality in ancient Greece since the dawn of the modern gay rights movement.

Lesbian Cowboys: Erotic Adventures
by Sacchi Green 97815734443616
Cleis Press
$14.95 Paperback

Fifteen writers share their take on the phenomenon of Cowboys — a calling, a vocation, and a status that has nothing to do with gender. Sexy, steamy, and crackling with the energy of a wild filly, these stories represent the cutting edge of lesbian cowboy fiction.

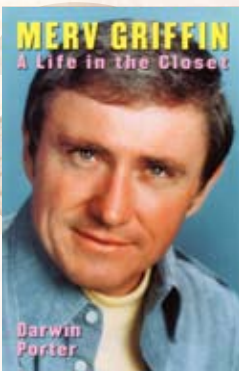

50 Gay and Lesbian Books Everybody Must Read
by Richard Canning 9781593501198
Alyson Books
$16.95 Paperback

Canning tackles important themes, issues of regional and cultural diversity, political aspects, and analyses of that old chestnut: What makes a work of literature gay or lesbian?

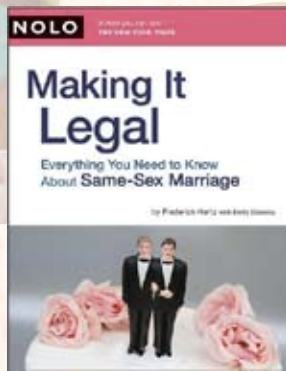

Slide
by Kal Yee
9780963157423
Number 3 Inc.
$45.00 Hardcover

Slide is a hardbound coffee table book of handsome male models photographed in L.A., Miami, and NY. It is 120 pages, 9x13 inches, including 70 photographs and 5 illustrations.

Merv Griffin: A Life in the Closet
by Darwin Porter
9780978646509
Blood Moon Productions
$26.95 Hardcover

This is the first post-mortem, unauthorized insight into Merv Griffin, a failed singer and unsuccessful actor who unexpectedly rewrote the rules of America's broadcasting industry. He became the richest man in TV, bought a casino, and maintained a secret life as America's most famously closeted homosexual.

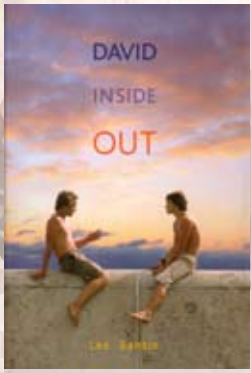

Making It Legal
by Emily Doskow
9781413309843
NOLO
$29.99 Paperback

Doskow is a practicing attorney and mediator who has worked with families in the Bay Area for more than 15 years. She is the author of Nolo's Essential Guide to Divorce and the editor of many Nolo titles.

Lifeguard on Duty
by Matt Albiani 9781576875018
powerHouse Books
$45.00 Hardcover

Matt Albiani is a New York-based fashion photographer. Born and bred outside of Boston, Massachusetts, he has shot for a wide range of publications. His advertising roster includes Ralph Lauren, J.Crew, Victoria's Secret, and Lilly Pulitzer.

David Inside Out
 by Lee Bantle
 9780805081220
 Henry Holt and Co.
 $16.99 Hardcover

In this thoughtful yet searing coming-of-age novel, Lee Bantle offers a raw, honest, and incredibly compelling account of a teenager who learns to accept himself for who he is.

Grey Gardens
 by Albert Maysles
 9780977652365
 Free News Projects
 $45.00 Hardcover

One of the strangest and subtlest films ever made, shot at Grey Gardens, the dilapidated East Hamptons mansion of Big Edie" and "Little Edie" Beale, aunt and cousin to Jackie Onassis, this classic of cinema verite tracks the Beales' eccentric and sequestered lives--which consist mostly of doing nothing, but with a mesmerizing zest and volubility.

Players
 by Rick Day 9783867870177
 Bruno Gmunder
 $89.99 Hardcover

Rick Day loves to play with the expectations of the contemplator. Superficially it's all about sports, about immaculate and trained bodies in chunky rugby wear, tight trunks or simply naked.

Shooting Male
 by Eric Schwabel
 9783867870184
 Bruno Gmunder
 $69.99 Hardcover

Schwabel— young award-winning talent in the field of fashion and fine art photography— has a sense for subtle, but capturing erotic. Schwabel teaches photography and hates to photoshop his images. That's why his pictures appear so natural in spite of his eye for the glamorous side of things.
